MEMORANDUM FOR: THE RECORD

SUBJECT: QKBROIL - Points of Agreement in Discussions with []

PRESENT: []

1. The following were agreed upon during the review of Project QKBROIL on 3 December 1951:

a. It was agreed that the first Rumanian agent drops should be as nearly as possible synchronized with the opening of Rumanian PW operations over the covert radio and that if feasible it would be desirable to commence agent operations before opening the PW campaign. /not from

b. It was agreed that [] would explore cover for the Rumanian radio personnel to be sent [] and advise Washington at an early date so their processing could begin.

c. It was agreed that the first air drops, probably to be undertaken in May or June, would be staged through Greece and would receive support from []

d. It was agreed that QKBROIL would be able to draw against the stockpile presently in Athens for operational supplies required on its early missions.

e. It was agreed that, since the B-26 can only carry four agents, the Rumanian drops would consist of a four-man "pathfinder" mission followed by a second drop which would include the rest of the base personnel.
